noticed and i would recommend honestly good social media games have giveaways every now and again when events drop that would be awesome instead of a one time deal for each app i think players should get some rolls on the events link i found this appealing with other games i ve played also the friends list what s up with it trying to find my social media friends and it s not finding them or adding them when i send the link even if they are playing is grieving very frustrating to try and figure it out when it impossible another i ve noticed is if you have people on your friends list i think they should be avoided to bank roll them if they are part of the team they should be excluded from heists etc which brings me to the next i ve noticed and that s if they take money the correct amount taken i ve sat side by side and more money was taken from me than was told to the player taking the money not fair not for player 1 or player 2 honestly think if these little suggestion could be incorporated it would be flawless still though 5 stars for me
